

CANTINAS – Unlimited Experiences

Duration: 4 hours

Difficulty: Easy

Mode: Walking tour in the Historic Center (transportation option available)

Discover Puebla's Cantina Culture: Tradition, History, and Drinks with Personality

Puebla is not only about talavera and mole. It is also a city of legendary cantinas, where every drink tells a story, the atmosphere is authentic, and drinking is done the old-fashioned way—with conversation, laughter, and great company. This tour takes you through four iconic cantinas, each offering a traditional drink and a unique style that represents the true flavor of Puebla.

Cantina Tour Highlights

- Visit four traditional cantinas rich in history
- Tasting of one traditional drink at each cantina
- Discover the famous Lomo de Rana, the iconic Pasita, the classic Menyul, and the well-known Puebla-style Sangria
- Authentic local atmosphere, traditional music, and cantina anecdotes
- Fun, cultural, and safe experience
- Ideal for couples, friends, groups, and curious travelers
- Option to enjoy the tour on foot, with transportation, or with a studentina (traditional music group) for groups

Description

This tour immerses you in the most authentic essence of the city: its cantinas. We begin at La Mina de Plata, a cantina with a vintage atmosphere and a unique signature drink: Lomo de Rana. Next, we visit La Pasita, the oldest bar in Puebla, where you will taste the city's most famous traditional drink, served with goat cheese. We then continue to La Ópera, known for its traditional ambiance and its star drink, the Menyul. We finish at La Terminal, a classic neighborhood cantina where the traditional Puebla-style Sangria is served. Each stop includes stories, anecdotes, and insights into local cantina culture, all within a fun tour led by an expert tour host.
