

CHOLULA AND BARROCO – Unlimited Experiences

Duration: 8 hours

Difficulty: Easy

Mode: Cultural and gastronomic tour with transportation

Ancient ruins and the splendor of Puebla's Baroque

This experience brings together two worlds that define Puebla's identity: the preHispanic greatness of Cholula and the artistic expression of New Spanish Baroque. Pyramids, unique temples, and a contemporary museum combine to offer a complete, visual, and deeply representative cultural experience.

Description

The experience begins with a transfer to Cholula to visit the archaeological site that preserves the pyramid with the largest base in Mesoamerica. During the visit, you will explore the site museum, the Patio de los Altares, and the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Remedies located at the top, offering privileged views of the valley. We continue to Santa María Tonantzintla, an exceptional temple where Indigenous Baroque is expressed in every detail, followed by a visit to Casa Talavera for the tasting of traditional liqueurs. The experience continues to the Church of San Francisco Acatepec, recognized for its impressive Talavera tile and red-brick façade, and concludes at the International Museum of the Baroque, a contemporary space showcasing the artistic and cultural evolution of Baroque in Puebla and around the world.
