Description

The experience begins with a transfer to the Sierra Norte of Puebla, where we immerse ourselves in the natural environment of Cuetzalan. The first activity is the exploration of the Chichicazapan Cave, where we walk through rocky passages and an underground river system accompanied by a local guide, using safety equipment. We then visit El Salto Waterfall and La Escondida Waterfall, surrounded by lush vegetation and jungle landscapes that invite a deep connection with nature. The experience concludes in the Historic Center of Cuetzalan, where guests enjoy a tasting of wines, local liqueurs, and coffee, along with free time to eat, walk through its cobblestone streets, and enjoy the atmosphere of this Pueblo Mágico.
