CANTONA

Cantona is an important archeological site, located on the west of Puebla. It was one of the mesoamerican cities with the most urbanization, probably established in the latest preclassic period. Nowadays, it has 24 architectural units, 3 circulation routes, 8 housing units, one access with a stronghold to the acropolis, 4 sets of ball game and one more pitch, 3 closed squares with a pyramid and a palace, all of them explored and enabled.
