PUEBLA, FUERTES AND ESTRELLA

The fascinating center of Puebla city is filled with historic buildings, including colonial elegant mansions, the XVI-century cathedral, the wooded square known as Zócalo, and the Palafoxiana library which dates back to 1646, declared Cultural Heritage by UNESCO.

Los Fuertes de Loreto y Guadalupe are former military constructions, where the Battle of May 5th took place.

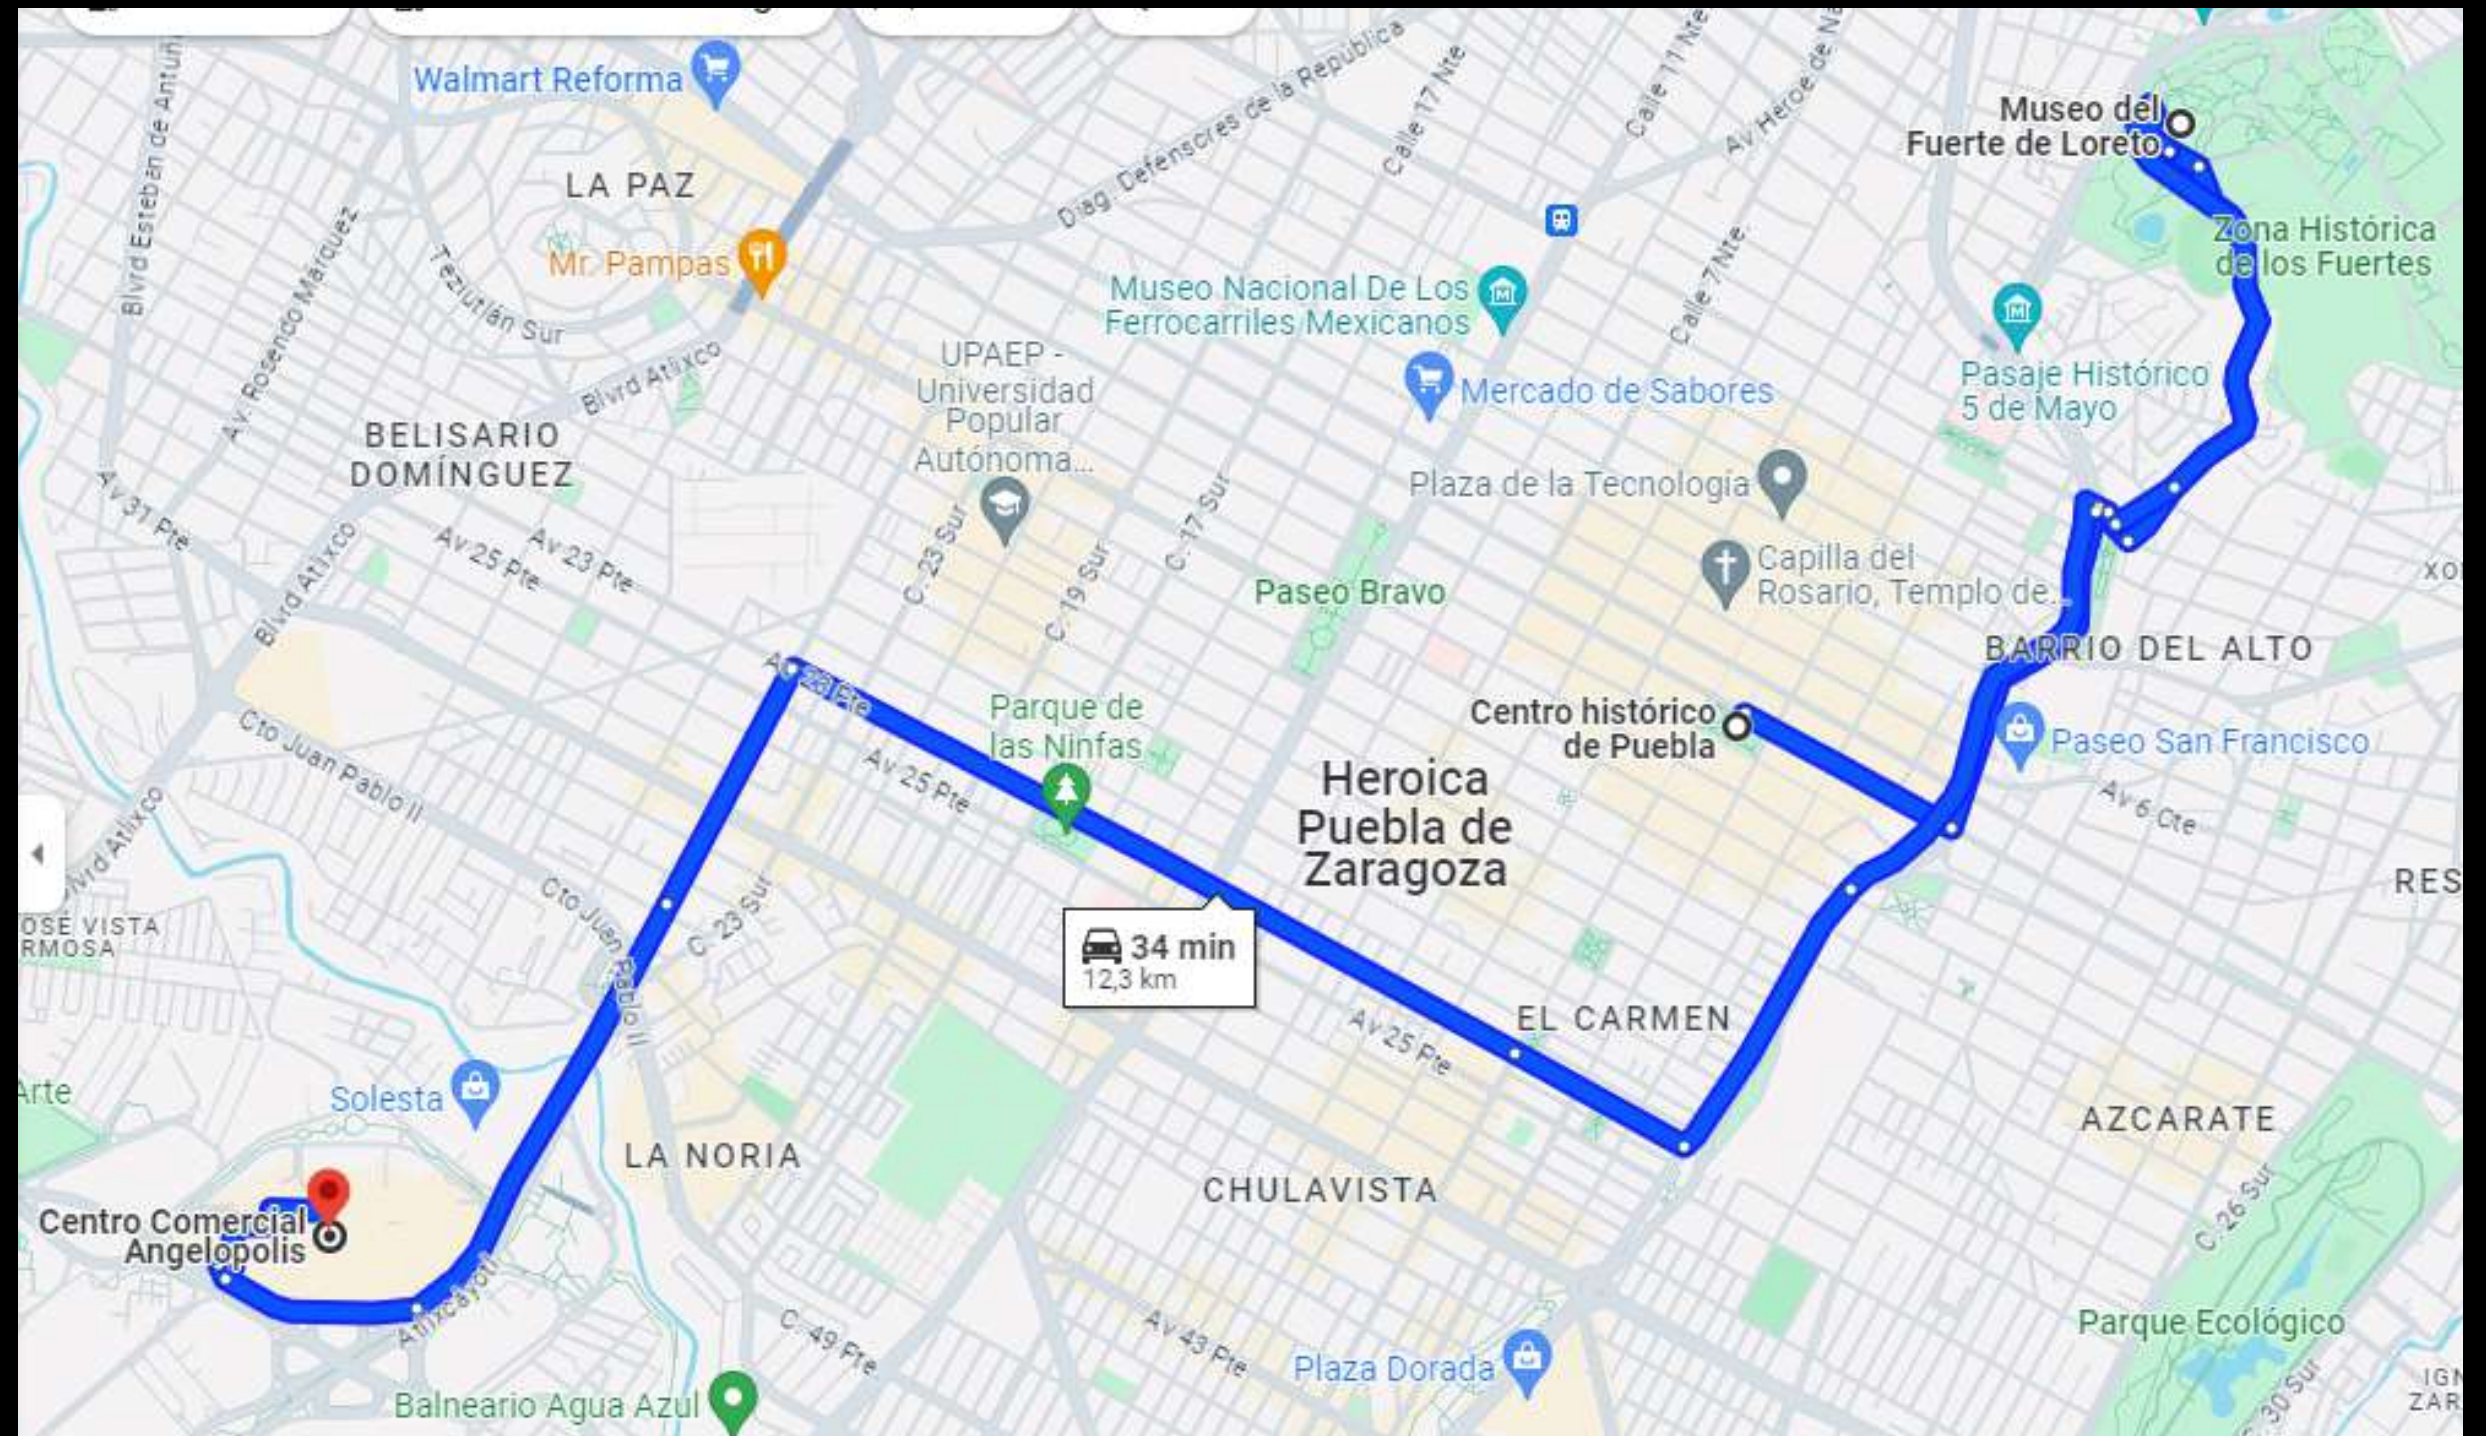

The “Star of Puebla” is the biggest Ferris wheel in Latin America, from where is possible to admire the city from up to 80 meters high.
