EXPERIENCES

Description

We begin the tour in the heart of Puebla's Historic Center, where the city starts to reveal its colonial essence. We visit the Palafoxiana Library, a 17th-century bibliographic treasure recognized by UNESCO, before continuing to the majestic Puebla Cathedral and the Zócalo, the social and cultural hub of the city. Next, we enter the Chapel of the Rosary, a gem of New Spanish Baroque architecture, dazzling with its ornamental richness. Later, we stroll along the Calle de los Dulces to taste traditional recipes inherited from Puebla's convents. The tour continues through the Barrio del Artista, El Parián, and the Callejón de los Sapos, areas full of color, art, antiques, and tradition—perfect for photography and shopping for local crafts. A tour designed to experience Puebla in a relaxed, cultural, and authentic way.
