PUEBLA AND CHOLULA

The fascinating center of Puebla city is filled with historic buildings, that include colonial elegant mansions, the XVI century cathedral, the wooded square known as Zócalo, and the Palafoxiana library which dates back to 1646, declared Cultural Heritage by UNESCO.

The archaeological zone of Cholula, site of the largest pyramid in Mesoamerica, with nearly a million cubic meters, is the most important explored prehispanic settlement until now in the state of Puebla, and one of the principal explored sites along with the altar square.
