Description

This tour begins in Cholula, one of the most important pre-Hispanic settlements in Mexico. You'll explore the Archaeological Zone, home to the largest pyramid base in Mesoamerica, and visit the site museum, the Patio of Altars, and the iconic Church of Los Remedios. Next, we transfer to Puebla, where viceregal richness is evident at every step. You'll visit the Biblioteca Palafoxiana, a 17th-century treasure declared a UNESCO World Heritage site; the Cathedral, with its imposing architecture; and the Zócalo, the historic heart of the city. We'll enter the Rosario Chapel, a masterpiece of New Spanish Baroque that dazzles with its gold decoration and religious symbolism. Then, we'll stroll along Calle de los Dulces to taste traditional sweets, and explore the Barrio del Artista, El Parián, and the picturesque Callejón de los Sapos. Finally, enjoy a scenic drive around the Forts of Loreto and Guadalupe, key landmarks in Mexico's history. A full day to discover the cultural, architectural, and archaeological essence of Puebla.
