Description

The experience begins early in the morning with a transfer to Huamantla to take advantage of the ideal sunrise conditions. Upon arrival at the balloon port, guests complete registration, receive a safety briefing, and are assigned a pilot. During the balloon inflation, you can observe the process and take photos.

The flight lasts approximately 45 minutes, offering panoramic views of the Tlaxcala highlands and La Malinche volcano, creating a unique and peaceful moment in complete silence.

After landing, you will enjoy a traditional toast and receive a flight certificate, closing a truly special experience—perfect for celebrating meaningful moments.

Afterward, we transfer to Huamantla's town center, where you will explore its most iconic spots, including the historic center, plazas, and charming streets.
