 Unlimited Puebla

Description

The experience begins early in the morning to take advantage of the best sunrise flight conditions. Upon arrival at the balloon port, check-in is completed, a light snack is offered, and safety measures are explained. During the balloon inflation process, travelers can observe the preparation and take photographs.

The flight lasts approximately 45 minutes and offers privileged views of the ancient city of Teotihuacán, including its main pyramids and pre-Hispanic urban layout. At the end of the flight, the traditional toast takes place and a flight certificate is presented as a keepsake of this unforgettable experience.
