TEHUACAN AND BIOSPHERE RESERVE

Tehuacán is the place of Gods or the place of the snake of stone. It is also known as the corn's cradle due to the corn findings in this region. The biosphere reserve is an enigmatic space in which biological, geological, cultural and historical wealth converge. It is the ideal place to observe the flight and hear the chant of the green macaw, observe the columnar cacti woods, unique on earth. Offering you a different and unique experience on a desert that hides magnificent landscapes.
