Description

The experience begins with a transfer to Atlixco, a town known for its privileged climate and strong flower-growing tradition. We will visit the region's nurseries and walk through its Historic Center, exploring the Zócalo, the Parish of Santa María de la Natividad, and the City Hall, famous for its murals that tell the local story. We continue with a tasting at "La Pasadita," where we will enjoy artisanal bread, chocolate, and liqueurs, followed by a visit to the Former Franciscan Convent, which offers privileged views of the valley and, on clear days, the volcanoes. We close the visit to Atlixco with a stop at Ximitl to taste unique artisanal ice creams. Later, we transfer to Chipilo, a community founded by Italian immigrants, where you will visit a local cheese factory, learn about traditional cheese-making, and enjoy a cheese and wine tasting. A tour that blends culture, history, and unique flavors.
