CHOLULA AND TALAVERA DE LA REYNA

The archaeological zone of Cholula, site of the largest pyramid in Mesoamerica, with nearly a million cubic meters, is the most important explored prehispanic settlement until now in the state of Puebla, and one of the principal explored sites along with the altar square.

UNESCO declared the Talavera pottery fabrication process as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. The Talavera is manually elaborated pottery, belonging to Puebla, made with mud, shaped by a ceramic mold and decorated with metallic colors.
