Description

The experience begins with a transfer to Huauchinango, a Pueblo Mágico surrounded by hills, rivers, and lush vegetation. Upon arrival, we enjoy a guided tour through its Historic Center, where you will visit the Zócalo, the Municipal Palace, the House of Culture, local artisan workshops, and the Sanctuary of the Lord of the Holy Burial, one of the region's most important religious symbols. We then continue to Finca Buenavista to experience the Coffee Bio-Route. Here, you will walk through coffee plantations while a local producer explains the coffee process, from plant to cup. You will learn about different types of beans, aromas, and production methods, ending with a tasting of high-altitude coffee. The experience is complemented by a traditional meal at the farm, surrounded by nature. A journey that connects culture, landscape, and the authentic flavors of the Sierra Norte.
