 Unlimited Puebla

Description

The experience begins with transportation from Puebla to Mexico City to explore its Historic Center, one of the oldest and most symbolic urban areas in the Americas. The tour starts at the Metropolitan Cathedral, a monumental structure built atop ancient Mexica temples, followed by an exterior visit to Templo Mayor, the spiritual heart of ancient Tenochtitlan. We continue through the Zócalo and along Madero Street, where iconic buildings such as Casa de los Azulejos and the Palace of Fine Arts are located. The tour includes a walk through Alameda Central, a visit to the impressive Postal Palace, and historic landmarks such as the City Theater and Santo Domingo Church. A complete experience to discover the historical, cultural, and architectural essence of Mexico's capital.
