EXPERIENCES

Description

The experience begins with a transfer from Puebla to the Ex-Hacienda de Chautla, a historic estate renowned for its iconic English-style castle surrounded by lakes, gardens, and forested pathways. During the visit, you will learn about its history while enjoying a beautiful natural setting perfect for walking and photography.

Next, we visit Rancho San Martín, a space dedicated to the artisanal production of lavender. Here, you will learn about lavender cultivation and the creation of essential oils, stroll through fragrant lavender fields, and participate in a hands-on artisan workshop. The visit concludes with a tasting of lavender bread and lavender coffee.

The journey continues to Santa Rita Tlahuapan, a protected forest where you will experience the magical phenomenon of firefly watching in their natural habitat. To end the day, you will enjoy a traditional snack of bread and coffee prepared by local residents before returning to Puebla.
